

Add It Up

Andrew Belle

Tell me which way is up
I'm getting lost for crying out loud
Had a point I meant to make
Came to me as the wheels touched down, oh

Come to think of it
I'm the one who's letting you down
Tell me what does it for you now that I'm not around, oh

I know it doesn't add up when you put it on paper
You were playing by the water 'cause you knew I would save you
now
Now that your time's run out

Static climbs inside my mind
All these lines they blur into one
Higher roads they turn and wind
All this time my back's to the sun, oh

Come to think of it
I'm surprised that I didn't run
What's to make of it
The parts were not as great as the sum, oh

I know it doesn't add up when you put it on paper
You were playing by the water 'cause you knew I would save you
Now that your time's run out

Oh when you add it all up
You'll see that nobody made you
You were clinging for your life as the memory escaped you now
Now that your time's run out

I need a second wind, a second wind of hope now
I need a second wind, a second to myself now
Now that my time's run out
Now that my time's run out, oh
