

I believe my heart

Andrew Lloyd Webber

Whenever I see your face, the world disappears,
All in a single glance of, revealing,
You smile and I feel as though, I've known you for years,
How do I know to trust what I'm feeling.

I believe my heart, what else can I do,
When every part of every thought leads me straight to you,
I believe my heart, there's no other choice,
For now whenever my heart speaks, I can only hear your voice.

A lifetime before we met, has faded away,
How did I live a moment without you,
You don't have to speak at all, I know what you'd say,
And I know every secret about you.

I believe my heart, it believes in you,
It's telling me that what I see is completely true,
I believe my heart, how can it be wrong,
It says that what I feel for you I will feel my whole life long

I believe my heart, it believes in you,
It's telling me that what I see is completely true,
And with all my soul I believe my heart,
The portrait that it paints of you, is a perfect work of art.
