

Hold On To Your Love

Andrew Rayel

Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love

Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love

Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love
Hold on to your love

I'll give it a try
You've been loved and lost in time
You had enough
But you have to make it through the night
Just give it a try
The music will wipe away your tears
So [get?] up and try
The music will take away your fears

Open up your heart and give into the night
Open up your heart and lead it to the night
Hold on to your love, just try again
Hold on to your love, just try again

Open up your heart and give into the night (hold on to your love)
Open up your heart and lead it to the night (hold on to your love)
Hold on to your love, just try again
Hold on to your love, just try again

Open up your heart and give into the night
Open up your heart and lead it to the night (ooh)
Hold on to your love, just try again
Hold on to your love, just try again
Hold on to your love, just try again
Hold on to your love, just try again
