

Encounter

Andrew W.K.

Believe! To be grown up is to be able
To survive so many sorrows
And now,
You are alone and you're shivering cold
My tender and sweet dear one

I'm holding your grief and everyday
It's in my heart and I am bleeding
Believe! Let me take all of my tears to the sea

Oh, I miss you so (Oh, I miss you so)
And I'm longing for you (And I'm longing for you)
I turn and look up to the sky and it's turning red

[Chorus]
Yes, my sweet, yes, my sweetest
I wanna get back where you were
Take me back into your arms, oh once again
Yes, my sweet, yes, my sweetest
I wanna get back where you were

In this world there ain't anymore who can live alone

Believe! You went away and left me standing
With my heart inside a shadow
And now, I've got to find you wherever you are Cause you've gone so far

And so I dream we'll meet again
Hey, maybe someday, maybe somewhere
Believe!
Let me take all of my tears to the sea

Oh, I love you so (Oh, I love you so)
And I'm craving for you (And I'm craving for you)
And all the devotion I have it fills up the sky

[Chorus]

Take me back into your arms, oh once again...
