

Without A Sound

Andru Donalds

As I dream of dancing on the clouds
Temptation lends me to fulfill my fantasy
The more I stay, the more I want to go
Cause life can go on without me

Without a sound I whisper
That I'm going to heaven
Without a sound I wonder
Shall I die tonight?

Hope that I'll fly away someday
Up to the sky so high away
Hope that you're waiting there for me

They say suicide means that you go to hell
But I say heaven's just a little bit closer
Some say you're weak, some say you're crazy
But when I win, then I'll cry for being the loser

Without a sound I whisper
That I'm going to heaven
Without a sound I wonder
Shall I die tonight?

Hope that I'll fly away someday
Up to the sky so high away
Hope that you're waiting there for me
