

I Never See You

Andy Davis

Thank God, Thank God you're okay
I could have lost you, you had me afraid, you know when you're still away the thoughts in my head
, the nails in my bed, keep me away Did you see, how close your feet to the edge, when you came to me, oh do you love, do you see it
You say that you're not leaving
I wanna believe it's true but I never see of I'm out on the edge, waiting again there's nothing that I can do yeah I never see you Your a voice is only a tease it never seems to calm my agony and though I'm a man of faith it's hard to believe in what you can't see when you're gone away
Did you see how close your feet where to the edge, when you cam e to me, oh do you love, do you see that You say that you're not leaving, I wanna believe it's true, but I never see you I'm out on the edge, waiting again, and nothing that I can do w ell I never see you But you see, how close your feet were to edge when you came to me, oh do you love, do you see that you say that you're not lea ving, I wanna believe it's true, but I never see you Out on the edge, waiting again with nothing that I can do, cause I never see you, yeah,
you say that you're not leaving,
I wanna believe it's true, I never see you, out on the edge, wa iting again, nothing that I can do, well I never see you, yeah, I never see you, yeah, well I never see you
