

Spontaneous

Andy Davis

Gas in the car, get in Say we're never spontaneous Taking a chance and living the wild life baby I know it's late but we can make it to the coast by sunrise, we can make it but we might have to drive all night baby

Clothes on our back are plenty everybody will wonder where we've gone to, this will make a real good story someday soon

Just need a cup of coffee, good station on the radio, you can stay up or you can sleep on my shoulder Don't wanna ever wonder where the car could have taken us I'll wake you up when the drive is over Clothes are back are plenty

everybody will wonder where we've gone to, this will make a real
good story someday soon.

If the oceans warm, we'll take a swim fill our pockets with sand, and prove we went to our friends

Clothes on our back are plenty everybody will wonder where we've gone to, this will make a...
