

Sinner

Andy Grammer

I've been throwing stones
Waiting by the river
I've been on my own praying like a sinner
You've been gone too long
I'm waiting out the winter
I've been on my knees
Praying like
Praying like a sinner

Well you built this city right in me
And brick by brick and piece by piece
And love in both in your hands tried to make an honest man
From when I woke until I went to sleep
You planned my life so carefully, sculpted me like clay
I could see you in my face
And I never thought I'd live this life without your guiding light

I've been throwing stones
Waiting by the river
I've been on my own praying like a sinner
You've been gone too long
I'm waiting out the winter
And I've been on my knees
Praying like
Praying like a sinner

And I heard the walls are paper thin from where you are to where I am
But I don't feel a thing, if you all keep pulling strings
Send on down a message please
Light a bull behind my dreams
I'd just like to know that you hear me, that your close
And I never thought that I'd live this life without your guiding light

I've been throwing stones
Waiting by the river
I've been on my own praying like a sinner
And You've been gone too long
I'm waiting out the winter
And I've been on my knee
Praying like
Praying like a sinner
You've been gone for too long
Oh ooo whoa
You've been gone for too long
Oh ooo whoa

I've been throwing stones
Waiting by the river
I've been on my own praying like a sinner
You've been gone too long
I'm waiting out the winter
I've been on my knees
Praying like

I've been throwing stones
Waiting for the river

You've been gone too long
Praying like

I've been throwing stones
And I've been on my knee
Praying like
