

Stay There

Andy Grammer

Easy to get to or hard to stay
The magnets that pull us also push us away
The closer that we get, the more that's at stake
Whole lot of road ahead, but we got that stamina, babe

Anyone could hit and run
Somebody you could hold, baby, that's rare
Anyone could fall in love
How many do you know that could stay there?
Stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Stay there (Ooh, ooh, ooh)

Something forever is something naive
And we come together only to leave
'Cause mama couldn't do it, no, daddy couldn't do it, no
I think we could do it though, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothing is impossible, don't wanna be cynical
We could be unmovable, yeah, yeah, yeah

Anyone could hit and run
Somebody you could hold, baby, that's rare
Anyone could fall in love
How many do you know that could stay there?
Stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Everybody running, running, running
But I ain't going nowhere
I'ma stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Stay there

Anyone could hit and run
Somebody you could hold, baby, that's rare
Anyone could fall in love
How many do you know that could stay there?
Stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Stay there (Ooh, ooh)
Everybody running, running, running
But I ain't going nowhere
I'ma stay there (Ooh, ooh, ooh)
