

A Side Of Me

Andy Griggs

I've lived my life like a one way ticket
Not knowing where I'm bound
About killed myself just to prove I was alive
Then all of a sudden with a whole lot of lovin'
You turned my world around
So don't worry if I'm ever gonna walk the line
Yeah I'll be true, but baby I can't lie

I've been known to get a little rowdy
And crazy when I can
I can get a little loud
I get a little lazy
And a little bit out of hand
I got a good side bad side
Sometimes just this side of sanity
But turning my back on you
Is a side of me you'll never see

I've been in the middle
I've been on the edge
Been a diamond in the rough
But baby I'll bet that you can smooth me out
No I'm not perfect
But for what it's worth
You can count on this boy's love
I can see where you might have your doubt
But let me tell you what I'm all about

I've been known to get a little rowdy
And crazy when I can
I can get a little loud
I get a little lazy
And a little bit out of hand
I got a good side bad side
Sometimes just this side of sanity
But turning my back on you
Is a side of me you'll never see
