

Were You In Love With Me

Andy Shauf

when we were on the couch

in between every day
what were your dreams about

was it coincidence
that every sad song
that didn't seem so far off brought you to sing along

I am a hotel room
you block the light
the darkness
forgotten
all through the night

and when the silent night
invades the busy day
unwelcome thoughts provide a place to hide away

I am a hotel room
you block the light
the darkness
forgotten
all thorough the night

the car ride
I took off
at three am

sleep lightly
eternity
enough to worry me

does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
does she still love me?
