

I Really Don't Want to Know

Andy Williams

How many arms have held you
And hated to let you go
How many, how many, I wonder
But I really don't want, I don't wanna know

How many lips have kissed you
And set your soul aglow
How many, how many, I wonder
But I really don't want to know

So always make me wonder
And always make, make me guess
And even, you know even if I ask you
Oh darling don't confess

Just let it remain your secret
For darling I love you so
No wonder, no wonder, I wonder
I really don't wanna to know
