

Sad Eyes

Andy Williams

Sad eyes, don't you be sad no more,
Sad eyes, what are you cryin' for?
Just because love's gone, just because love's gone wrong.
Don't ya be gloomy, step out into the light,
Baby listen to me, you're gonna be alright,
You don't have to sing no, you don't have to sing no sad songs.
I'm gonna write some new lines,
A few lines you can maybe get yourself off on,
For when you're down
To be turned around upon.
Sad eyes, you've only to live to smile,
Beautiful sad eyes, you know that I love you child.
I live for the time when, the time when those sad eyes shine.
Sad eyes, you've only to live to smile,
Beautiful sad eyes, you know that I love you child.
I live for the time when, the time when those sad eyes shine.
I live for the time when, the time when those sad eyes shine.
Sad eyes
