

The Christmas Waltz

Andy Williams

Frosted window panes candles gleaming inside painted candy canes on the the tree Santa's on his way,
he's filled his slay
with things, things for you and for me

It's the time of year when the world falls in love every song you hear
seems to say
Merry Christmas
may your new year dreams come true
and this song of mine
in three quarter time
wishes you and yours
the same thing too

Santa's on his way,
he's filled his slay
with things, things for you and for me

Merry Christmas
may your new year dreams come true
and this song of mine
in three quarter time
wishes you and yours
the same thing too

Merry Christmas
Merry Christmas
Merry Christmas
Merry Christmas
