Do You Remember

Do you remember the late morning When we went back to bed, When we found the first position And every muscle rested

I do remember that I already Knew it was the last time, The last time for first positions The last time you'll be mine

Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao

Do you remember the scars I showed you The stories I told you How I always said forever When you aksed me to stay true

Do you remember when we forgot How to smile at each other To believe that the other Want only whats good for you

Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao

Do you remember the late morning When we went back to bed, When we found the first position And every muscle rested

I do remember that I already Knew it was the last time, The last time for first positions The last time you'll be mine Ane Brun
