

Raise My Head

Ane Brun

I will raise my head now
And travel further on this time
Take all there is to take on
And then unravel this cellophane mind

I've got my best shoes on
I'm ready for it all
Bring in your best crew
Come on, I'm ready for it all

I know for quite a while now
You've been knocking silently on my door
I, I've been avoiding
Your radiant words on my bedroom walls

I've got my best shoes on
I'm ready for it all
Bring in your best crew
Come on, I'm ready for it all

I've got my best shoes on
I'm ready for it all
Bring in your best crew
Come on, I'm ready for it all
