

Such A Common Bird

Ane Brun

I am a lone wolf
A beauty and a beast
Both hunter and hunted
Soft tounge and sharp teeth
As I drink from storm puddles

Help me figure this out
Help me figure you in
Help me figure this out
Help me figure you in
Help me figure this out
Help me figure you in

I have seen angels
They were sleeping in gutters
They were standing in bank lines
They were jumping from towers
They were calling like seagulls
But nobody heard
Such a beautiful message
From such a common bird

We want freedom for ourselves
But we can't give it to each other
We want peace between nations
Yet we battle with our lovers
We're blinded by billboards
And trying to get ahead
We're choking on ambitions
And the words left unsaid.

I am a lone wolf
A beauty and a beast
Both hunter and hunted
Soft tounge and sharp teeth

Help me figure this out
Help me figure you in
You're a shadow to me
That I echo when I sing
Help me figure you out
Help me figure you in
