

Hear Me

Anette Olzon

So little time and I'm falling
I hear you breathe when I'm falling
Can you save me?

Hear me, I'm calling your name
Clear me from feeling the shame
Let go

Now losing mind
But I'm learning
Making a change
And I'm learning
If you show me

Hear me, I'm calling your name
Clear me from feeling the shame
Let go
Don't even wanna know

Feel, don't even know what's real, no more
So hard to play a role
Of someone in control, so cold
Left there on my own
Can you save me?

Hear me
So hear me, I'm calling your name
Clear me from feeling the shame
Let go
