

Let Go

A New Revolution

No use saying
Word I want to say.
No use saying at all.
There's no use faking.
The way we used to be.
There's no use faking at all.

And if I let go,
will you let go of me?
Cause I can't keep holding on.
I've given everything
and if I let go
Know that you can't hold on
You can't hold on to me

there's no use playing all those stupid games.
There's no use blaming
when you never hear the blame.
So I stopped trying to save what can't be saved.
I stopped trying for so long.

And if I let go,
will you let go of me?
Cause I can't keep holding on.
I've given everything
and if I let go
Know that you can't hold on
You can't hold on to me

and if I let go
And if I let go
And if I let go
And if I let go
will you let go of me?
And if I let go
I've given everything
and if I let go
that you can't hold on to me
that you can't hold on to me

And if I let go,
will you let go of me?
Cause I can't keep holding on.
I've given everything
and if I let go
Know that you can't hold on
You can't hold on to me
