

Groundswell

Angaleena Presley

Hotel room, thirty days
Still not breakin' even but I'm gettin' paid
One more link in the chain
Makes it last a little longer and it kills the pain

It's a rainy night in Georgia
And I'm prayin' that the t-shirts and the records will sell
One more song, one more show
One more penny in the well
Groundswell

Open road, 3 AM
Lookin' for a truck stop like a long lost friend
Lights go down, spirits rise
It's hard work, but it's worth it when I see those eyes

There's a blue moon over Kentucky
And my cousins all came out to raise a little hell
One more song, one more show
One more penny in the well
Groundswell

I gotta make it through these Alabama pines
'Cause I've got a house to clean and bedtime story to tell
One more song, one more show
One more penny in the well
One whisper leads to one yell
Groundswell
