

Liquid Angel

Angel Dust

Once again the pictures
Disarray
No more empty words
That go astray
Paralyze I step into
The stream
Hoping all my lies
Will follow me

I feel the dawn rise in me
The light disappears
I start to regret
I can't break these chains
I die to live again

Ever so I try to turn around
Electrifying voices
Tie me down
My senses are erased
I'm breathing in the flames
The termination has begun
I cannot break these chains

I feel the dawn rise in me
The light disappears
I start to regret
I can't break these chains
I die to live again
