

Unite

Angel Dust

Don't speak...
Of the silence that falls on the future
I won't say - but I believe there is something in my mind
It's hard to expect there will be no surprises
Don't feel - there's a sign of what's coming - we divide

Keep us together
Don't silence our souls
In this dread - ripped apart again

You know my aim is for you to be my last resort
Don't heed the empty mindless call
I don't feel hatred towards you
This is my last remorse
Here comes the ending
Unite - in the mystic world
Unite - in the mystic world
Unite - and overcome

Don't say that the cries of tomorrow are silenced
Don't think like we will be living in ecstasy

Don't feel my agony now
This is my last real hope
Don't heed the empty mindless call
I don't feel hatred towards you
This is my last remorse
Here comes the ending
Unite - in the mystic world
Unite - in the mystic world
Unite and overcome
