

A Tribe Called Red

Angel Haze

Back in the booth where the tragedy ends
Switch up the team, let the magic begin
Fuck all you haters, I'm in it to win
Way back when them losers were letting me in
All of these bitches is mad at me, so?
Money unpinned how they magically fold
Honestly really can't pay it no mind
Because spending that time means I'd rather be broke
I'm out here living my passions and more
Witnessing pieces that patch to my soul
Nothing can irritate mattes, they literally showing them standards can turn into growth
Haters gonna hate when you winning and shit
Go for these bitches, they tend to forget
I'm out here yelling 'bitch, look at me now!'
I was once on the ground, now I'm stuck in the clouds 14 whole hours, a trip out to Spain, high in the clouds, but go jump in the rain
Just ten years later still fucking these haters
While facing my fears, no more running from pain
Haters gonna chase so I'm gunning my aim
No more fucking with bitches who stunting for fame
You can catch me out ' and something deranged
Ain't it funny how suddenly something can change?

You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt
You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt

Death with no pitching then tangle the cop
All nonbelievers better be silent
Not talking Jesus but honest to God
I reach my partner for '
Switching those bitches, adjusting my flow
Go against me and get right from the go
All of you bitches keep taking your shot
But if won't come at me, it's straight for your flow
Hotter than niggas and bitches around
Deities bragging, our neighbors is down
Don't fuck with my friend, don't fuck with my head
'Cause to get to that point I'm seriously vile
Promise you people that evil's alive
Wish you can see what I see with my eyes
All of the demons that be in mind
So I burned out my bridges and cut all my ties
Said I would do this back when I was 9
Said I would do this before I got signed
Said I would give all these ' and doubters
A reason and purpose to question their lives
Look where I am and then look where I've been Tell me that I ain't destined to win
Never get power to none of you cowards

Then tell me what you think my destiny is

You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt
You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt

Gone for a minute but back on my grind
Promise to you and no messing my mind
Took all my job into submission
And force my ambition to step in the line
I know that they did not want me to shine
I know that they did not want me to climb
I know my side that being a boss, me making these bitches get back on their jobs
Can anyone fuck with me now? No
How do these bitches respond? No
Looking behind and seeing me now
What, do they think I'm beyond? No
I'm just be taking my time, slow
Being alone in my mind, flow
Putting the concepts of all that's inside me into this shit I'm designed for Cross over the pit but I'm back in the game
That's right bitches, I'm tracking my lane
Focused on bridging the gap
And showing that you found a way to accomplish that dream
Know how it feels when they kicking you down
And it's getting you down
You gotta make the decision to be the one difference in your life and turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even when you feel you gunning it down
I know it's hard to be adamant, too
When you stand out like a sore thumb in the crowd
No niggas and bitches and quitters aloud
Ball inside you until the survival of your dreams
Until you are living them out

Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt
You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
Turn it around, turn it around
Even on you when you got me to doubt
You gotta make a decision to be the one difference in your life
And turn it around
