Heart broken too often Love wasted no potion Poor baby don't make a sound Everybody wanna break you down I'm broken can't hide it Where the truth at can't find it They tell me all these lies No truth in all these lies Momma says don't give your world to no man But truth beef love till you got that ring on your hand Nobody knows nobody knows that Everybody feels what don't nobody show so Live it up, live it up Take them all down Live it up, live it up Take it all now Live it up, live it up Take them all down Break a couple hearts Leave a couple round Live it up, live it up Take them all down Live it up, live it up Take it all now Break a couple hearts Break a couple hearts but don't fall in love no... Still broken fast forward

Feel the pain now ignore it I'm running but what towards I don't know but I'm going Can't feel shit that's boring That's real shit and you know it I then felt more than a little bit But I rather be a heart breaker than a little bitch Momma says don't give your world to no man But truth beef love till you got that ring on your hand Nobody knows nobody knows that Everybody feels what don't nobody show so

Live it up, live it up Take them all down Live it up, live it up Take it all now Live it up, live it up Take them all down Break a couple hearts Leave a couple round Live it up, live it up Take them all down Live it up, live it up Take it all now Break a couple hearts Break a couple hearts but don't fall in love no... He said don't go falling in love so as much as I can I steer clear of all of that stuff I fear that I am a little less emotional Took a couple fucking pills I think that I overdosed Gotta dark side shit you can call it comatose Everybody quick to talk about some shit that they don't Fuck what you heard, like I'm fucking what you heard Like the word's to my clit, and I'm fucking every word Fucking every verb do something for me now I play dirty like shoes under money ground I'm too smart where the dudes try to dumb me down But they get played like blues in the fucking south I get you open and choose when to shut you out Walk up in it like guess who's in the fucking house Damn I own it I own it condone it Heart breaker heart taker content with my wrong and I'm scared that I may never make it back They say they love me I don't know what to say to that I mean I'm trying I just don't know what to make of I got good intentions I just forgot where I placed them

Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Live it up, live it up
Take it all now
Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Break a couple hearts
Leave a couple round
Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Live it up, live it up
Take it all now
Break a couple hearts
Break a couple hearts
Break a couple hearts but don't fall in love no...

Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Live it up, live it up
Take it all now
Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Break a couple hearts
Leave a couple round
Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Live it up, live it up
Take them all down
Live it up, live it up
Take it all now
Break a couple hearts
Break a couple hearts but don't fall in love no...

Love is a choice
And the chance that I can take
Is everything I ever loved
Is one big mistake
I never hurt again
Never feel a brush
Until the next
