

Say What's Real

Angel Haze

I have to let my ego go My profit coming heavy as it grows and I'm almost near the point where I'm about to lose control
And If he never burdens us with more then we can hold then why do I implode like a fucking over load?
I got fire on my head like MJ with a pepsi drink and a lot of shit inside me like a septic tank
It's funny niggas wanna spin around and flip shit like
I never been shit but a fucked up misfit
And while there's truth to those accusations
I'm still sick with no motherfucking vaccination
I'm still the shit like they pressed pause on me
And technically I foul til' the ref calls on me Nigga I could have been signed... I been a buzz
But I was scared to show the world who I really was
And label heads they ignore those who give their all cause they're busy seeing what stick when it's to the wall
It ain't about the fucking craft and perfection
Ask Ryan Leslie I was fucking that selection
But I was busy being stubborn as a bastard,
With the mind of a crafter and a father that was Casper
So I got a lot of shit I won't admit
And a whole bunch more that I won't forget
These fucking faggots wanna trap me in my baggage And treat me like I'm manic cause I'm more then they can manage
Bitch but I'm a be me til' I fucking croak
And I won't let you take me as a fucking Joke
So don't compare me to any bitches that's out here Cause be honest I am who they not near Bitch I'm higher then the fucking feeling Higher then a building that was built on heaven's ceiling
I can't believe I chose this bullshit over books
I'm like a midget in a crowd being overlooked
And niggas still fucking fail to acknowledge me
Sleeping on me then later offering apologies
I'm sorry Raee'n you speak the truth with every fucking word
Shut up bitch tell me something that I haven't heard
Don't deny you play your favorite rapper then play me
After you would swear I flow like the middle of a fucking rapture
My mind set is kill em' all or be destroyed
I'm out here trying to be balling bigger then keloid
Yeah I gotta eat, fuck whoever starving
It's survival of the fittest word to that nigga Darwin
Pause I'm done letting niggas play me
And dying of laughter is the only way that they slay me Cause I've been standing here naked hoping y'all see
I'm trying to take your eyes and make em' focus on me
My mom told me Raee'n You'll only be a star when you become comfortable with who you really are
And Since I did niggas been trying to manipulate me, Break me and shape me to every image that they see
But I don't listen to a word from you fucking beginners

Bitch I'm flyer then the south for a couple of winters
How dare you niggas try to call me influential
In the same fucking sentence say it's all coincidental
She dresses like a dyke but she bodies instrumentals
I think she's fucking faking it, it's all so incidental Nigga I had to kill myself 3 times
And let the neigh sayers brain cell my free mind
To hold it all in I ain't got the room to So I don't entertain the bullshit that I'm immune to Fuck you all bitch fags you can die slow
Let me be great it's the only thing I know
I learned young not to trust shit
So I'm sorry to the world if I'm not enough bitch
Fuck it all I have is my word and my pride
So I exhale and let all my burdens subside
And to my haters ya'll bitches stay tune I'm a give you all a million reasons to hate you
And still I did it all on my fucking own
Now I'm about to change the chair into a fucking throne
And I dare anybody to stop me
I'm putting bitches in the dirt like sock cleats
I'm done
