

Best Father Around

Angel Taylor

He took everything from us, but he let us keep our fear
He robbed the little picture called a family, taken long ago, went away for so many years

And it was as though he took joy in listening to our tears
And he would never apologize, cause his pride was blinding

But God is my true father
He will never let me down
My God is unchanging
He's gotta be, He's got to be,
The best father around

He'd cover his lies with scriptures, and he let us believe every word
Growin' up, for me, wasn't easy
No, No
Like nothing you've ever seen or ever heard

My mom is the bravest woman that I know
She held fast to God's love, and never let us go
That's why you know

That God is our true father
He will never let us down
My God is unchanging
He's gotta be, He's got to be,
The best father around

I had the choice of cocaine, or I could have been a heroin
But God's love took a hold of me

That's why I know,
And we know,
And you should know

That God is our true father
Our God is unchanging
He's gotta be, He's got to be,
The best father around

Around, around, around,
Around
