

Don't Forget Me In Time

Angel Taylor

Oh yeah, oh yeah
Oh yeah, oh yeah

Quickly you came, quickly you left me
Your sparkling eyes are shining as you walk away
You smell like snicker doodle cookies
And I don't ever want you to go away

Give me some sugar
And I'm falling into you, oh yeah
And I need your loving, give me your hugging
Baby let these wishes come true

Oh, can you hold until the morning or maybe just tonight?
You're making all these promises to make me feel alright
But will you forget me in time?
Don't forget me

Oh yeah, oh yeah

You're trying to get the stupid little tattoos and
I'm trying to tell you the treble clef is just ...
We keep walking down the street
Talking philosophy of this crazy life

You keep on smiling
My stomach turns to butterflies, oh yeah
I can't decide if being with you is wise
So tell me

Can you hold me till the morning or maybe just tonight?
You're making all these promises to make me feel alright

If you hold me till the morning will all my wishes come true?
If you hold me till the morning will all my wishes come true?
If you hold me till the morning will all my wishes come true?
If you hold me till the morning will all my wishes come true?

Can you hold me till the morning or maybe just tonight?
You're making all these promises to make me feel alright
But will you forget me in time?
Don't forget me

Oh yeah, oh yeah
Don't forget me
