

Epiphany

Angel Taylor

Tell me who do you think you are?
Believe or not I'm not torn or scarred, no
My heart is intact
You were never something I liked, no

Tell me why would you go that far?
Your love had me locked up behind bars, oh
But the chains are now gone
I've never felt so free or so strong, yeah

And this epiphany just hit me
And now I'm finally realizing

You're all I never needed
I'm so perfect without you
And oh, you look defeated
Hopes and lies and see through, yeah

A true love is surrounding, clarity abounding
You were never my epiphany

Tell me who do you think you are?
This attitude you got won't get you far
If you could only see how bad a star
You possess, you possess

And this epiphany just hit me
And now I'm finally realizing

You're all I never needed
I'm so perfect without you
And oh, you look defeated
Hopes and lies and see through, yeah

A true love is surrounding, clarity abounding
You were never my epiphany

Better, stronger
Better, prouder without you
Better, stronger
Prouder without you, without you

You're all I never needed
I'm so perfect without you, yeah
And oh, you look defeated
Hopes and lies and see through, yeah

A true love is surrounding, clarity is abounding
You were never my epiphany, you were never my epiphany
