Somebody Got Lucky

Angela McCluskey

I was in the moment
The terminal endeavor
Someone I should have run from
I turn back
Oh
Someone untrue
Someone I should have run from stole my soul

And took my hands
And brought me home
You're choosing sides
That blow my mind
And everywhere you go
You got control
Aw don't you know
Evaporator

Somebody
Got lucky
The terminal invader
The diamond I shine my heart on
I tremble
Ooo
The diamond is a viper
The diamond done stole my home and burned my hide

And took my hands
And brought me home
You're choosing sides
That blow my mind
And everywhere you go
You got control
Aw don't you know
Evaporator

And my world is breaking down
You took my hands
And brought me home
You're choosing sides
That blow my mind
And everywhere you go
You got control
Well don't you know
I do my time
Survive your lies
I tremble and sigh
But i'm doing fine
I know not why
You stole my sky
I shiver and I cry
But i'm doing fine

So turn back time
Until the moon
No longer lies
