

It's so easy to be a fool,
It's not so easy to tell it true,
to say you care and mean that you care.
A seconds thought for a peaceful time.

Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, it could happen to you
Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, if you are part of it too.

To be a stranger to your feelings,
actions can be more harmful than words.
Responsibility's the question;
answers are a second response.

Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, it could happen to you
Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, if you are part of it too.

Yeah, everyday, I'm talking to you and everyday,
if you want to be part of it too.
Come on then, everyday. Come on, everyday,
I'm talking to you if your part of it too.

Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, it could happen to you.
Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, if you are part of it.
Everyday, I want to hear you say.
Everyday, it could happen to you.
