Hush little darling don't you cry
My little darling don't you cry
Everything's gonna be alright
Cause I'm coming home, home tonight

I see you in the kitchen, I see you in the garden I see you working, see you laughing I see you with our children and they are sleeping tight Cause I'm coming home, home tonight I'm coming home, home tonight

Yeah, eah

I've been on the road for so long
I've been on the road far too long if you go to bed, leave on the light
Cause I'm coming home, home tonight
I'm coming home, home tonight

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, eah, yeah, yeah, eah Oh eah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, eah, yeah, yeah, eah
