

Invincible Child

Angelo Kelly

The system, the bogeyman
Whatever you wanna call it
Whatever you wanna call him
The enemy, the friendly
Whatever you wanna call them
Whatever you wanna call them

You can't touch me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child
You can't stop me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child

So take all the money and burn it all
We should get back to where we were
Things weren't really perfect
But they sure aren't now
In this so called modern society
The statue of liberty
A state of misery

You can't touch me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child
You can't stop me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child

You can't touch me

You can't touch me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child
You can't stop me
You can't hold me
Cause I'm the invincible child
I'm the invincible child
