

Dry Your Eyes

Angels & Airwaves

A Waterfall a wonderful glisper
A Teardrop Falls
You say your goodbye it means nothin

I say that we have tried and we gave our all
We fall to the floor I'm not buyin
I'm not for this and all you ever do is stall
I am so damn sick of tryin
And now we are fucked cause we wrecked it all
I will not save your soul

So Dry your eyes
Get on your feet don't pretend to cry
Or thanks to you and I
Yeah we're here again
So phone me and today is the day it ends

I can't complain it's been good not great
But the time flew by
It came from behind you was lying
You was hard to hold onto everytime we fight
Though it would end in shitty exhaustion
It left cracks we have grown and are out of mind
And into your heart like a virus
And it would crawl and crawl and we wait there blind
It broke you and I

So Dry your eyes
Get on your feet don't pretend to cry
Or thanks to you and I
Yeah we're here again
So phone me and today is the day it ends

So Dry your eyes
Get on your feet don't pretend to cry
Or thanks to you and I
Yeah we're here again
So phone me and today is the day it ends

The Day it ends (ends ends ends)
The day it ends (ends ends ends)

So Dry your eyes
Get on your feet don't pretend to cry
Or thanks to you and I
Yeah we're here again
So phone me and today is the day it ends

So Dry your eyes
Get on your feet don't pretend to cry
Or thanks to you and I
Yeah we're here again
So phone me and today is the day it ends
