

Soul Survivor (...2012)

Angels & Airwaves

I am a ghost
This is a dream
There's something here
It calls to me
I sense it cause it's always there
So silent as I stare and stare

There is a light, when were asleep
We're barely doors, with locks and keys
With feelings of our hopes and fears
As sounds explode within our ears

Like stars at night falling fast asleep on the risen sun
Wait patiently
You can feel it cause it's always there
Quite stronger as you stare and stare
Like love and lies shake violently
Down to the core too fast to grieve
It has a way to keep me down
I gotta say it wears me out

So sadly soul survivors
Lost and lonely in open water
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh

Help I'm losing, help I'm falling
Life is silent, the earth is calling
Every reason, every nighttime
And every day starts and ends in sunlight
But I'm not okay with this vicious cycle
Something's broken, it seems unnatural
The shapes are wondrous, but loosely woven
The sounds are deafening, and time is frozen
Yo oh oh oh (X8)

So sadly soul survivors
Lost and lonely in open water
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh

So sadly soul survivors
Lost and lonely in open water
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
Yeah oh
