

Here We Go Again

Angie Stone

Now we been traveling this road left too far
So with love, my best regards
I'm giving you the time and the space
Yes, you need just a little more faith
If you're gonna grow, then you need to know
When it's time to just let go
Cause life is too short to be pretend
We're in the beginning when it's the end

Oh oh, here we go... a-gain
Trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no
(2x)

Now we're both knowing what the problem is
Instead of letting go, trying to make it fit
Making a fool out of love
Ending up in the same predicament
If we're gonna grow, then we need to know
When it's time to just let go
Life is too short to pretend
We're in the beginning when it's the end

Oh oh, here we go... a-gain
Trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no
(2x)

I trusted you with everything
Gave you my all to make you stay
You took, but never understood my pain
Now I gotta leave you
Love I'm on my way

Oh oh, here we go a-gain
Trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no
(2x)

Time to let it go now
Wherever we would go from here
I'm praying
Sweet blessings
Nothing but joy, happiness
Baby don't regret it
It's all good
Said we learned so much from each other
