

I Lost (My Mind)

Angry Samoans

I lost my mind and now my heads a tent
And I spend the time wondering where it went

I want it back 'cause I got to live
This twist of fate I cannot forgive

I met a man not too long ago
And what he said to me I didn't want to know

I saw his bag and when he turned away
I reached inside, and then I lost my mind!

It's gone away, so far away
Yeah

I'm looking back, there's nothing left
In my head & I can't forget

I know it well, there's no way out
I lost, I lost, I lost my mind!
He's so unkind

It's gone, gone, gone away
It's gone, gone, gone away

Yeah I lost my mind
