So rest your headyou're all mine. And I stay awake, I won't go home. Let's go on a holiday. To burn this town She's my Babylon.

So rest your heartyou're all mine.
Because if you walk away,
I fall on down.
And bleed, red as bloodRed as when.
She's my Babylon.

No I don't want to see you go. No I don't want to be alone.

So rest your hand you're all mine.
I can't stay awake,
my eyes fall down.
Said I dreamed a dream
that you walk 'round
She's my Babylon.

No I don't want to See you go. No I don't want to Be alone No I don't want to Be alone. No I don't want to Be alone.
