Nicotine

Ani DiFranco

I hate you sometimes
But I love to be your queen
You are my muse
Got me smoking nicotine

I watch you sometimes From oh so far away But I can't forget you Or anything you said

You sang that song in my ear And it tickled those tiny hairs

Love is a puzzle

Some pieces they adjoin

It's not like that with us

But I keep flipping that coin

I watch you sometimes From oh so far away But I can't forget you Or anything you say

You sang that song in my ear And it tickled those tiny hairs
