

To the Teeth

Ani DiFranco

The sun is setting on the century and we armed to the teeth we're all working together now to make our lives mercifully brief schoolkids keep trying to teach us what guns are all about confuse liberty with weaponry and watch your kids act it out every year now like christmas some boy gets the milkfed suburban blues reaches for the available arsenal and saunters off to make the news and the women in the middle are learning what poor women have always known that the edge is closer than you think when your men bring the guns home

Look at where the profits are that's how you'll find the source of the big lie that you and I both know so well in the time it takes this cultural death with to run its course they're gonna make a pretty penny and then they're all going to hell he said the chickens all come home to roost yeah malcolm forecasted this flood are we really gonna sleep through another century while the rich profit off our blood? true it may take some doing to see this undoing through but in my humble opinion here's what I suggest we do

Open fire on hollywood open fire on MTV
open fire on NBC and CBS and ABC
open fire on the NRA and all the lies they told us along the way open fire on each weapons manufacturer while he's giving head to some republican senator

And if I hear one more time about a fool's right to his tools of rage I'm gonna take all my friends and I'm gonna move to canada and we're gonna die of old age
