

Hey Light

Animal Collective

Hey light, in the curtain, in the room
In a well-made bed for two, I'm walking
Hey light, I'd forgotten work today
'Cause you should work all day, they're walking Hey light, the colors will arise
Leep it deep inside, we are also working

Hey light, I can wear my moccasins
You have made me smile again, there ain't nothing like you
