

Men in My Life

Anita Baker

I'm such a lucky woman
Folks don't understand
How I handle so much loving
From more than one man
Ask me how I do it
My time's in such demand
From sunrise down to sunset
Do the best that I can

'Cause I know that I could never choose just one
'Cause the three men in my life
They're my husband and my sons yes

Tell you one is tall and handsome
One is full of life
The big one steals my covers
In the middle of the night
Each one swears they need me
And I believe they're right
'Cause the young ones call me Mommy
And the other calls me wife

And I never knew that I could love as much
'Cause the three men in my life
They're my husband and my sons

Hush, hush, hush, hush
Hush, hush, hush, hush, now
Oh someday they're gonna leave me
Gonna strike out on their own
Off to raise a family
Little babies of their own
I'll be here with daddy
Just as happy as you please
To watch the branches growing on our family tree
And I know that I could never love just one
Never knew that I could ever love so much

And I know that I could never in my life
'Cause the three men in my life
Are my husband and my sons

Hush, hush, hush, hush
Hush
