

I'm A Believer

Anita Lane

I'm a believer
I fell down in sorrows garden
Wet night flowers
Red and black
Push me up
They can't give me up
They taste my touch
I tell them baby
I call them baby baby baby
They are crushed
Stars spit down
They try to hammer me underground
There is a black rainbow astride
This hallowed ground
Black rainbow
I pull it down
I pull it down
This nervous night
Swallows the eye
I drown my hands
I lay them down
The fools
Seduction tools
Let you go
Into the sun
The earth tightens
The dirt delivers me
I believe
I'm a believer baby
I believe you
Brought me
Undone

Don't push me away
Don't give me away
Believe in me

Thank you
