

I Won't Hurt You

Anja Garbarek

I've lost all my pride
I've been to paradise
And I'll be out of sight
With no one to guide me
Torn apart by a fiery will inside me

I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you
I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you

I'm an untouched diamond
That's golden and brilliant
Without illumination

Your mouth's a constellation
The stars are in your eyes
I take a spaceship
And try and go and find you

I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you
I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you

My pale blue star
My rainbow
How good it is to know you like me
You strike me with your lightning
Bring me down and bury me with ashes

I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you
I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you
