

Picking Up Pieces

Anja Garbarek

Picking up pieces, talking loudly...

Picking up pieces, talking loudly...

Pick it all up now,

Put it back in your mouth.

Pick it all up now.

Pick it all up now,

Put it back in your mouth.

Pick it all up now.

And swallow...

Picking up pieces, talking loudly...

Picking up pieces, talking loudly...

You took away my red lips,

And then cut them up in pieces.

So now I can't kiss the moon,

So now I can't kiss the moon goodnight.

No longer fly,

Through the clouds.

No longer touch the stars
