Brothers At Arms

Ann Beretta

Working all day to look a devil in the eye we're brothers at arms and we fight a good fight, just another line to record my time standing together through the wrong and the right, i tell you r ight now that i know a thing or two together we stand and together we fall, i'll tell you right now that i do know more than you standing as one you know we stand tall, try so hard i wanna fig ure out if i'll take it tell you right now i don't wanna do without will fake it?
