

Like A Riot

Ann Beretta

Strike fast strike hard on the alleys and the streets, break another heart like the city concrete when you look back now was it all worth fighting for?
and i fall on my face all the mistakes i've made and i hate everyone and i hate everything but it all come back to a one sided point of view and i run like a riot right back to you upside, outside find it on the flipside stopm another hole in the otherwise right side take another bow was it all worth fighting for?... and i run like a riot right back to you and i run, and i fight, and i live in the past but i leave it b ehind
and i run, and i fight and i run like a riot right into you
