

Done With Her

Anna Abreu

We're always looking for something we just can't have
We try to make it work even though it's bad
Not sorry that you cry and let me tell you why
This whole freaking town was built on a lie
The bridges are burning
And the walls are tumbling down

This time it's no no for me
This time it's no no

Oh no, let's make it clear babe
Oh yeah, this is for real
You want to rule my world
I'm not that kind of girl
So I say no no
I'm done with her

I've been blind for ages but now I see
Completely lost myself in disbelief
Not sorry that you cry and let me tell you why
You promised me the moon and stars from your sky
One too many times I've tried to say goodbye

Oh, how we hurt ourselves
And still we beg for more
But this time
I won't cry
