

Hysteria

Anna Abreu

Gonna get blinded by a bright beam
I see it coming your way
So show your love for this black sheep
And get ready for flames

I've been waiting for a long time
Guess I've made up my mind
My heart is banging like a bass drum
Put on your steel belt and scream

Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
Feel it grow stronger in your heart
It's just the way you're supposed to feel
Out of control that's what we are

Come on and turn it one louder
And love comes hitting your heart
Come on let's turn it one louder
Hysteria

So honey get in shape for tonight
Get studded, get cool
You better nail it, get it just right
Or else you'll look like a fool

There are two sides to this story
Pick a dark cloud or dive into the light
You gotta get a reputation
Better start breaking some rules

Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
Feel it grow stronger in your heart
It's just the way you're supposed to feel
Out of control that's what we are

Come on and turn it one louder
And love comes hitting your heart
Come on let's turn it one louder
Hysteria

You're in a crazy love emotion
When this comes hitting your heart
We call this crazy love emotion
Hysteria

Don't you worry
What's life without a sin
Feel if you can't see
Wake up, let it begin
We can look away
But can't deny
That shouting out loud
Is what it's all about

Come on and turn it one louder
And love comes hitting your heart
Come on let's turn it one louder

Hysteria

You're in a crazy love emotion
When this comes hitting your heart
We call this crazy love emotion
Hysteria
