Shame

Anna Abreu

walked around And trough the empty halls I could hear the sound Echoing a call Of a love so strong That gently slipped away Now there's no one left to hold today You know what they say When your heart is bleeding it'll heel in time But what if I myself am guilty of the crime? Cause I see I didn't realize I had it all Instead I chose to take a fall Now it's all the same And I've me to blame Now I'm left alone with all my shame Left with all my shame Painful whispers Shouting in my head Things that were bright yellow Are now black instead I had a secret meeting with a strange desire I couldn't get enough it only took me higher Now I see I didn't realize they had it all Instead I chose to take a fall Now it's all the same And I've me to blame Now I'm left with all my shame The picture of us on the window seal Is now replaced with dust And your fingerprints are gone And now loneliness is a friend of mine I didn't realize I had it all Instead I chose to take a fall Now it's all the same And I've me to blame I didn't realize I had it all Instead I chose to take a fall Now it's all the same And I've me to blame Now I'm left alone with all my shame Left with all my shame My shame
