

Unsatisfiable

Anna Abreu

I don't know why you're trying
What's the use is fighting
I just wish you would disappear
So I won't remember
How I once surrendered
To a love that just left me here

Don't bring me flowers
Every hour
They have lost their beauty
No more letters of forever
Nothing else can move me

I'm unsatisfiable
So unreliable
Too bad, too bad
You'll never be good enough
So undeniable
He used to be my world
I'm sad, so sad
'Coz I'll never fall in love

Never saw it coming
Then he left me wondering
If it's over is it over for good

He brought me flowers
Every hour
Blinded by their beauty
No more letters of forever
They still go right through me

I'm unsatisfiable
So unreliable
Too bad, too bad
You'll never be good enough
So undeniable
He used to be my world
I'm sad, so sad
'Coz I'll never fall in love

You took it from me
And I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry, babe

I'm unsatisfiable
So unreliable
Too bad, too bad
You'll never be good enough
So undeniable
He used to be my world
I'm sad, so sad
'Coz I'll never fall in love
